

Director of Music All Saints Episcopal Church- Omaha

Job Description: All Saints seeks a Director of Music/Organist who believes that the ultimate purpose of the music ministries of the church is to strengthen the community in their experiences and expressions of the Christian faith:

- by helping the entire community offer their gifts of praise and thanksgiving in worship and
- by cultivating a joyful sense of community among the music ministries.

Requirements for this part-time position will include the following:

- Be the principal musician of the church
- Collaborate with the clergy to provide music as an integral part of worship for the principal Sunday liturgy at All Saints. This includes but is not limited to: choosing hymns and service music, playing the organ and piano, arranging for soloists and instrumentalists when needed, and conducting the choirs, both adult and children, vocal and bell choir.
- Be responsible for all musical aspects of Sunday morning liturgies, certain feast days throughout the church year, and occasional liturgies (i.e. weddings, funerals, etc) as may arise.
- Develop & conduct choirs for adults, youth, children, and handbells. Lead rehearsals or arrange for rehearsal leadership. This would include the recruiting and supervision of paid section leaders.
- Oversee the maintenance and tuning of the organ, pianos, and handbells of the church.
- Maintaining Church Music Library
- Complete the “Safe Church” sexual ethics training (provided by The Episcopal Church) and conduct the music ministries in accordance with its standards
- Agree to a full background check conducted by the Episcopal Diocese of Nebraska

Benefits of this part-time position include:

- Salary and other benefits negotiable commensurate with experience
- Access to instruments and church spaces for private lessons.
- Vacations, time off for workshops or other continuing education (as well as expenses related to continuing education).

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, and three references who can speak to the applicant’s ability to serve in this position to The Rev. Dr. Darrel D Proffitt (dproffitt@allsaintsomaha.org).
